

privacy policy

we take your privacy seriously (no cap)

at dammie, we believe your data is yours. we're not here to sell your secrets to the highest bidder or track your every move like some creepy ex. this privacy policy explains how we handle your information when you use our app.

what we collect

- your dutch phone number (to verify you're a real amsterdammer)
- your amsterdam postcode (same reason)
- your event preferences (so we can show you stuff you actually care about)
- calendar permissions (only when you want to save events)
- location data (only when you're actively using the app to find nearby events)

what we don't collect

- your browsing history
- your contacts
- your photos

- your soul
- any other creepy shit

how we use your data

we use your information to:

- verify you're actually from amsterdam (no tourists allowed)
- show you events that match your vibe
- send you notifications about events (only if you want them)
- improve our mystical algorithms
- keep the platform authentic and spam-free

sharing your data

we don't sell, trade, or rent your personal information. period. we might share anonymized, aggregated data with event organizers so they know how many people are interested, but they'll never know it's specifically you.

data security

we use industry-standard encryption and security measures to protect your data. we treat your information like we'd want our own treated – with respect and strong passwords.

your rights

you have the right to:

- access your data
- correct your data
- delete your data
- port your data somewhere else
- tell us to stop processing your data

cookies

we use essential cookies to make the app work. no tracking cookies, no advertising cookies, just the bare minimum to keep things running smoothly.

changes to this policy

if we make changes to this policy, we'll let you know through the app. we won't pull any sneaky moves.
